SEDONA'S PINK JEEP TOURS OPENS UP THE GRAND CANYON IN GRAND STYLE

Sedona, AZ. -- Pink Jeep Tours, Sedona's original jeep tour company, has been providing jeep tours in Sedona for over 45 years. It is with this knowledge and expertise of the Southwest that they have launched their newest and most luxurious tour series, The Grand Canyon in Grand Style.

Guests are transported in beautiful custom-built and custom-painted pink vehicles. These luxurious vehicles seat 14 passengers and are equipped with plush leather reclining captain's chairs, oversized viewing windows and a flat-screen DVD player for the ultimate in grand touring style.

This unforgettable journey begins with a drive up Oak Creek Canyon, on one of the top 10 scenic drives in America, through the Ponderosa Pines Forests of Flagstaff, past the San Francisco Peaks and on to the Grand Canyon. Tour options include a lunch stop at either the Bright Angel Lodge or the El Tovar hotel, which has been newly renovated. After lunch, it's a spectacular drive along the south rim for incredible views and great photo opportunities. The journey back to Sedona includes majestic views of the Colorado River and a stop at the famous Cameron Trading Post on the Navajo Indian Reservation.

Pink Jeep guides are trained in interpretive education. Being experts in their field, they love sharing the mysteries of the Grand Canyon and all that is seen to and from. This luxurious, one of a kind tour enriches the soul and enlivens the mind.
